"ABOUT BEING DEAF" AIRS ON CHANNEL 4

WRC-TV4's "KNOWLEDGE" airs a 5-part series, "ABOUT BEING DEAF," Monday through Friday, August 1st-5th, 6:23-7:00 a.m.

The series, presented in total communication, is produced by WRC-TV4's Nancy Rosenblatt in cooperation with Gallaudet College and will air on the four other NBC Television Stations.

Segments will include, "Parents & Children of the Deaf", "Education for the Deaf", "Profile of Two Deaf Persons", "Consumer & Legal Issues Concerning the Deaf", and "Entertainment for Deaf Persons." Don't forget to mark your calendars for this outstanding program.

SIGN CLASSES TO BE HELD AT TWO CITY LIBRARIES

Free courses on deaf awareness and sign language will be offered at two branches of the D.C. public library beginning in September. The classes, which will meet twice a week for 13 weeks, will be given at the Watha T. Daniel Branch Library, 8th and Rhode Island Ave., and the Benning Branch Library, Benning Road, N.E.

The classes are designed for people who want to learn about deaf persons, want to keep up their signing skills, and for hearing impaired people who want to learn more about the deaf and to improve their sign skills. For more information about these classes contact H. Martin, 727-1186.

JULIA MAYES IS UP AND AT 'EM AGAIN!

Julia Mayes, who recently underwent hip reconstruction surgery, is recovering at Sibley Memorial Hospital and would love to receive visitors.

All reports say that Julia is doing very well and longing for some company. If possible stop by Sibley Hospital to say hello. She is in room 632.

Congratulations Julia, we all miss you!

METRO TO HAVE PUBLIC HEARING

METRO is ordering 280 new buses and wants to know about the special problems of the elderly and the handicapped. A public hearing has been scheduled for July 28, 1977 at 2:00 p.m. in the Metro Board Room, 600 Fifth St., N.W., Washington, D.C.. Individuals who wish to speak at the hearing are asked to call METRO before that date at 637-1050.

INSURANCE SERVICE FOR THE DEAF

This summer a new insurance service is available to the deaf and hearing impaired community in Metro Washington. The Grayson & Dickinson Agency will be operating this pilot project each Wednesday and Friday from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. throughout the summer. Their office is located at 10605 Concord St., Suite 202A, Kensington, Md., and their telephone number (voice only) is 933-6100.

SUMMER CLERGY TRAINING PROGRAM

A group of religious workers are at Gallaudet for the summer clergy training program, which is a six week "crash course" for those involved in church work with the deaf. This course is conducted by the Center for Continuing Education and the office of campus ministries. In addition to regular scheduled classes the participants will attend seminars given by such Gallaudet experts as Max and Della Fitz-Gerald (Sex education and the deaf), Will Madsen (The deaf person as a consumer of religion), Dennis Cokely (Story telling), Regan Quinn (Acoustics in churches), and several others.

NOTE THIS CHANGE

Please make the following name change in your campus directories.

Dianne B. Smith, Dept. of Counseling, should now read, Dianne Katherine Brooks.

COURSE IN SIGN LANGUAGE AT THE GENERAL ACCOUNTING OFFICE

The GAO on H Street requested a ten-week course in sign language for some of their management employees. Sixteen people, both regular employees and supervisors, are taking the course twice a week on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 8:15 a.m. to 10:15 a.m. Rev. Leroy Schauer from the Gallaudet Office of Campus Ministries taught a sign class at GAO last year, and it proved so popular that a second session was requested. Father Ray Richards is teaching this summer session.

AMONG OURSELVES

--Free Hands, a theatre group for the deaf in Sweden, presented "Deaf's Pygmalion" based on the famous Shaw play, and Gil Eastman's SIGN ME ALICE in Sundsvall, Sweden on March 26, 1977.

-- An article on the above mentioned production appeared in SDR-Kontakt, a publication that is the equivalent of the Deaf American, and was translated by Yerker Andersson.

--Dr. Clarence Williams, Associate Dean for Research, would like to remind you that there are still some funds available for summer research. For more information, the Research Office is located in the Graduate School Office, HMB 151 or call on extension 547.

RING LOST
